

Pakistan/Afghanistan: on the Flight Path of American Power

A Conversation with Tariq Ali

SEVEN YEARS AFTER the U.S. led invasion of Afghanistan, the Taliban are resurgent and 'Talbinization' has spilled over into Pakistan.

A wonderfully informed, iconoclastic and spell-binding speaker, Tariq Ali will be speaking on the current situation in Afghanistan, the spread of fundamentalism in Pakistan and the aims and policies of the West in Central Asia.

Tariq Ali is a British-Pakistani historian, novelist, filmmaker, political campaigner, and commentator. He is on the editorial committee of the New Left Review and Sin Permiso, and regularly contributes to The Guardian, Counterpunch, and the London Review of Books.

OISE Auditorium
252 Bloor Street West, Toronto
Friday, November 14, 2008
7:00 pm
Tickets $10.00

Contact:
Abbas Syed (416) 284-4893 or (647) 637-1891
Hamid Bashani (416) 399-7602
sabbas@canada.com

